

Media Partner* ISTSS 2020

As a Media Partner you will enjoy exposure at the prestigious international conference ISTSS – International Symposium on Tunnel Safety and Security.

Media partnership entitles your company to:

- Promotion on our website as a Media Partner (Magazine Logo, URL and short description on the Symposium website)
- Promotion in the Symposium Program as a Media Partner
- Signage at the Symposium as a Media Partner
- One full Press Delegate package if registered before January 30th 2020, including Symposium Proceedings and the opportunity to organise interviews with leading delegates and speakers.
Note! Contact Kaisa Kaukoranta (kaisa.kaukoranta@ri.se) if you want to organise interviews.
- Free distribution of your magazine from a magazine stand at the Symposium, or inclusion in the delegate bag (at your discretion)

Should you not be able to attend the conference please contact the Organising Committee (istss@ri.se) and a copy of the Symposium Proceedings will be sent to you after the Symposium.

As Media Partner you are expected to:

- Promote the Symposium to your subscribers both through your website, social medias and as a notice and advertisement in the paper edition of your magazine prior to the event
- Write an article about the Symposium after the event (at your discretion)

The ISTSS organizing committee wants to receive a communication plan covering how and when you plan to promote the ISTSS conference.

*Note that Media Sponsorship of the Symposium is nonexclusive.

If you are interested or have any questions please contact Kaisa Kaukoranta at istss@ri.se.
